The first system of music is written on a grand staff with a treble clef on the top staff and a bass clef on the bottom staff. The top staff contains a melody of four measures. The first measure has two eighth notes, the second has two eighth notes, the third has a quarter note, and the fourth has a quarter note. The bottom staff contains a bass line of four measures. The first measure has two whole notes, the second has two whole notes, the third has two whole notes, and the fourth has two whole notes. The word "Prit." is written in the middle of the system. A large bracket on the left side of the staves indicates the piece is in a single system.

The second system of music is a blank grand staff with a treble clef on the top staff and a bass clef on the bottom staff. It is intended for the student to write the second system of the composition.
